

Casa Velas' "Hanbag Bar" Features Designer Bags on Loan Complimentary for a Special Evening

No room to pack a handbag for a special evening? Or forgot it? Never fear. The luxury all-inclusive Casa Velas Boutique Hotel and Ocean Club has the solution: a "handbag bar". Guests can choose among seven different handbags from designers ranging from Carolina Herrera and Tory Burch to Michael Kors and Pineda Covalin, often called the Hermes of Mexico . They're available on loan, complimentary for the evening. Guests can reserve their pick once at the resort.

"How can we continue to raise the bar on hotel amenities and service, keeping our position as the 8th best hotel in the world according to Expedia® 2013 Insiders' Select™ List?" said Manuel Oviedo Arce, General Manager. "Our women guests told us this is a service they'd appreciate so we made it happen," he continued.

At Casa Velas luxury accommodations, gourmet meals, premium liquor and wine, 24-hour suite service, use of the fitness center facilities, WIFI, and taxes and gratuities are included in a single price. As part of the all-inclusive rate, guests can also dine at the AAA Five Diamond Grand Velas Riviera Nayarit, home to three AAA four-diamond restaurants.

Casa Velas, located on the Marina Vallarta Golf Course in Puerto Vallarta, offers guests a serene and exclusive setting, with the look and feel of a private hacienda. Its 80 suites are decorated in traditional Mexican colors and furnishings, as well as goose-down comforters and L'Occitane amenities.
